To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is written in introduction of Mr. Doug Stead.

I have known Mr. Stead for the past eight years through a variety of professional relationships. I know Mr. Stead to be a highly principled and focused individual.

He is currently a Director of the Society for the Policing of Cyberspace of which I am the current President. In that role, he has contributed significantly to our work in respect of enabling police forces around the world to become more effective in pursuing crimes committed over the Internet. This is particularly the case in respect of his personal commitment to combating the pedophile behaviour being committed in cyberspace.

Mr. Stead's expertise and actions have been recognized internationally and he has been a speaker at conferences in Ireland, Brazil and New Zealand. He was also a special guest at the inaugural conference convened by the National Child Exploitation Coordination Centre in Winnipeg in 2003.

As a highly successful businessman, Mr. Stead's interests extend well beyond the pedophile realm. I have personally witnessed his commitment to his local community in terms of both time and money.

Should the reader so desire, I can be contacted at (306) 780 – 5477 for any further information.

Yours sincerely,

R. E. (Earl) Moulton
